

POPULATION AND RURAL SOCIETY IN THE 21ST CENTURY

William Kandel and David Brown (eds.)

Introduction

Rural America Through a Demographic Lens [David Brown and William Kandel]

What the 2000 Census Tells us About Rural population Dynamics [Ken Johnson and John Cromartie]

Critical Themes in Contemporary Rural America

The Changing face of Rural America [Annabel Cook, Eddy Berry, Nina Glasgow]

Economic Restructuring, Globalization and Changing Livelihoods {Alex Vias and Peter Nelson]

Fifty Years of Farmland Change Across Time and Space [Max Pfeffer and Joe Francis]

Chronic Disadvantage, Emerging Opportunities [Leif Jensen, Stephan Goetz, Hema Swaminathan]

Case Studies: Changing Population Composition

Hispanic Population Growth, Age Composition Shifts, and Public Policy [William Kandel and Emilio Parrado]

Social Integration Among Elders in Rural Retirement Destinations [Nina Glasgow and David Brown]

Case Studies: Changing Livelihoods

Agricultural Dependence, Economic Hardship and Population Change in the Great Plains [Ken Johnson and Rich Rathge]

Demographic Responses to the Decline of Manufacturing in the Southeast [David McGranahan]

Gaming and Growth Pressure on Idaho Native American Reservations [Gundars Rudzitis]

Case Studies: Changing Land Use Patterns

Changing Land Use Patterns in the Rocky Mountain West [Doug Jackson-Smith, Eric Jensen, Brian jennings]

Second Home Ownership, Rural Population Growth, and Environmental Stress in the Northeast [Stephan Goetz, Benjamin Weagraff]

Urban Sprawl and Rural Economic Transformation in the South [John Cromartie]

Case Studies: Chronic Disadvantage; Emerging Opportunities

Persistent Poverty in Appalachia [Dwight Billings, Elgin Mannion]

Attachment and Aversion to Place on the Northern Plains [Christiane von Reichert]

Welfare Reform Amidst Chronic poverty in the Mississippi Delta [Joachim Singlemann and Marlene Lee]

Social Change and Adaptation in Western Amenity growth Communities [Richard Krannich, Peggy Petzelka, and Joan Brehm]

Future Considerations on the Social Demography of Rural America

New Approaches to Rural Demographic Analysis [Paul Voss and Roger hammer]

Public Policy responses to Rural Population Dynamics [Leslie Whitener]